

Considerations* for data controllers before sharing data:

Do I have a lawful basis under Article 6 of the GDPR for the sharing of this data?

Do I have a lawful basis under Article 9 of the GDPR for the sharing of this data (if required)?

Is the data I wish to share Article 10 data?

Is it necessary to share this information?

Is the data I am proposing to share relevant to the concern?

Is the amount of data that I am proposing to share proportionate to the aim/objective I am seeking to achieve?

With whom am I sharing this information?

Will the third party share this information with anyone?

I must ensure the data is secure: by what mechanism is it being transmitted?

Can I share the information on an anonymised basis and still achieve the stated objective?

Have I carried out and documented a risk-based assessment?
